I would like to thank all of the Sir Knights that participated in the Flag Presentations at St. Benedict and St. Francis on November 10 and especially thank Sir Knight John Stratman for coordinating the events. It is a truly rewarding experience and I encourage all Sir Knights to consider participating next year. On Veterans' Day we had a small turnout for the Parade with Jerry Orcholski as the only Sir Knight from our Assembly, this was hopefully due to the weather. In Sommerville, Sir Knights Rolando Gersava, Bill Higdon, Terry Glaser, and I participated in the Fayette County Veterans' Day program and assisted the Marine Corps League present and post the Colors.

With the passing of Fr. Oglesby and his visitation taking place on the same evening as our monthly meeting, we had a very good turnout at St. Phillip's. A special thank you goes out to the St. Phillip Council for their most gracious hosting of our meeting. To re-cap:

Reports of the Committees:

- Church – Sir Knight Joseph Seago informed the Assembly that St. Ann and Church of the Nativity were having a Men's retreat on Nov. 7, 8, and 9. He also informed that Church of the Nativity was still having First Friday Adorations.
- Color Corps – As Sir Knight Terry Glaser was at the visitation for Fr. Oglesby, it was reported to the Assembly that Sir Knights with regalia were needed to participate in the Flag Presentations and the Veterans' Day Parade.

- Communication – No Report
- Country – No Report
- The VA – Sir Knight Ike Davidson reported that the Memphis VA Hospital was ranked #1 VA Hospital in the entire U.S. He also reported that the need for volunteers still exists.
- Social – Plans are coming along for the annual Assembly Christmas/Birthright Dinner. Invitations were mailed out to the wives a week before the meeting and the deadline to respond is November 30.
- The Order – Sir Knight Jerry Orcholski reported that a Corporate Mass will be held on Sunday November 9, to honor all veterans and current military personnel.

Under Unfinished Business, it was reported that Sir Knights with regalia were needed for the Flag Presentations at St. Benedict High School at 10:00 A.M. and at St. Francis Elementary School at 2:00 P.M. on November 10. In New Business, Sir Knight Rolando Gersava presented the Assembly a Tennessee Flag on behalf of State Senator Delores Gresham.

Report of the Councils:

- St. Phillip's – The council was up to 45 members. It was also reported that a second Mass was added to the weekly schedule – 5:00 P.M. on Saturday.
- Church of the Nativity – The council had an MR drive in October and raised $806. "Keep Christ in Christmas" card sale and a holiday turkey drive were upcoming. First Friday adorations are continuing.
- St. Ann's – St. Ann is having a "Trunk or Treat" for Halloween. The council is providing Soup and Sandwiches after weekly Rosary. The council is celebrating their anniversary on November 16 and honoring the late Sir Knight Ed Kitts by changing the name of their council to Edward Kitts Council 7170.
- St. Francis – Octoberfest was a good success, thanks to the weather. St. Francis Parish Activities Club is hosting a Halloween festival and the council is supporting the effort. The council is hosting a First Degree on November 2

"In a word, never let go on these three things: Faith, hope and love. And know that the greatest of these will always be love"

Respectfully Sir Knight,
David J. Zwissler
Faithful Navigator
